

Hödlmayr International online enquiry data protection management policy

Person-related and sensitive data

The information provided by you on the online enquiry form, in particular your name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, etc. will be dealt with in line with the stipulations contained in REGULATION \(EU\) 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation).

Should you volunteer other unrequested information, we shall be permitted to also store this for the purpose of handling your enquiry. In addition, your data will be processed in pooled and anonymous form for statistical purposes and be thus employed for internal company or scientific surveys.

The Hödlmayr Group structure and the purpose of data management

The data made known by you will be electronically processed, stored and transferred within the Hödlmayr Group (please see <https://www.hoedlmayr.com/en/company/organisation>) in order to ensure that your enquiry can be processed efficiently throughout its organisation. Alone the authorised bodies within the Hödlmayr Group are permitted to access this data. The transfer of your data to a third party only takes place with your consent.

Your data will be treated as strictly confidential and safeguarded against access by unauthorised third parties. The Hödlmayr Group will undertake all economically acceptable efforts to protect your data against loss, unpermitted access and misuse. However, the Hödlmayr Group cannot assume a guarantee against loss or the illegal use of the data.

Consent of the applicant

As soon as you enter and send your data via the online enquiry form, you therewith declare your consent to the storage, processing and transfer of your data within the Hödlmayr Group for the purpose of handling your enquiry.

Revocation

You may withdraw your consent in writing at any time here.
